

Subject: Spelling
Evaluation: 2015/2016

HOUSE CARMEL

Strengths- from the children	Areas for Development	Evidence	Priorities for Development
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Help desks really help the children • Year 2 like the words on the whiteboards • New spelling logs and Read Write Inc. Spelling- it helps you to understand the spellings. 	-Children would like more spelling mats. -More time to learn their spellings for the test. -Find the spellings too hard. -Children nervous about their spelling tests.	The Carmel house leaders interviewed children from their house.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Begin spelling club to help children who are nervous about their tests. 2. Organise a Spelling Competition so that children learn common exception words for their year.

Summary of action: 2016/17

Priorities for Development	Action	Resources required	Sources of support	Monitoring (By whom)	Success Criteria
1, Begin spelling club to help children who are nervous about their tests.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Make a poster and launch in spelling support in assembly. 2. Make a rota- who will support children on which day? Spelling club will only be once a week. 	An assembly	Mrs. Gurner		Children will feel more confident during spelling tests.
2, Organise a Spelling Competition so that all children learn common exception words for their year group.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1, Think of a name and make posters/use the website to advertise the event- deputies. 2, Meet with literacy leaders and share action plan- Mr. Frelich and Mrs. Teale. 3, Plan class tests and decide when they are going to take place- organise tiebreaker questions. 	Assembly to launch the competition, literacy leaders will support children when choosing spellings Spellings. Mrs. Gurner will help set up the celebration- challenge.	Literacy Leaders and Mrs. Gurner		All pupils will spell common exception word spellings and feel confident in using them in their writing.

	4, Plan the Spelling Competition- buzzers, questions, set up the hall and organise a prize!
--	---	--	--	--	--