

WELCOME BACK!

It hardly seems possible that the six week holidays have ended already and it is time to come back to school. I have missed St Albans whilst I have been away and it has been lovely to catch up again with all of the children and parents and staff now that I have returned.

All of the pupils look so smart in their uniforms and we are gradually getting better at fastening on the new school ties after P.E!

Parent Workshops

Parent Workshops will be taking place throughout September and October and are a great opportunity for you to meet your child's new teacher, be introduced to any new routines or topics and ask any burning questions.

All meetings will be held in your child's classroom from 2.30-3.00pm. Please enter school through main reception.
