

As sweet as honey

Similes

As cunning as a fox

What are similes and why are they used?

- Similes compare something with something else.
- Similes use the words 'like' or 'as'.
- They help to create a picture of what the writer is describing in our mind.

Identify the similes in the sentences below:

- Rosie thought she was late for school so she ran as fast as lightning.

- Harry slept like a log after his day of exploring.

- Daniel and Faith wriggled like worms at the disco.

Link the beginning of the simile to an appropriate picture:

- As deep as the ...
- As light as a ...
- As slow as a ...
- As high as a ...
- As flat as a ...

Poems often use similes and metaphors to create an image in the reader's mind.

Today we are going to look at

Simile Poems

all about animals.

These are some animal simile poems Created by another Class.

Hedgehog

By James

Brown as a tree trunk
Eyes small as beads
Round as a rugby ball
Sharp as a shark's tooth
They have fleas
Toe nails sharp as a thorn bush
Spiky as a knife
Ugly as a spider
Eats worms and slugs and insects

Duck

By Samira

Beaks yellow as the sun
Swim like a speedboat
Colourful as a rainbow
Fluffy as a pillow

These are some animal simile poems Created by another Class.

Otter

By Shauna

As furry as a hedgehog
As small as a dot
It's as black as a spider

Horse

By Waseem

Black as a blackboard
White as a piece of paper
A tail long and swishy

Look at your words from your lion description yesterday.

Turning our ideas into similes....Using all of our ideas.
With your grown up think of similes you can make from your lion adjectives.

Lion

Teeth as pointy as spikes.
Claws as sharp as razors.
Mane as fluffy as a pom pom.
Paws a large as a giant.
A roar as loud as a firework.
As ferocious as a T-Rex.
As strong as an ox.