Celebrate WORLD BOOK DAY 2 March 2023

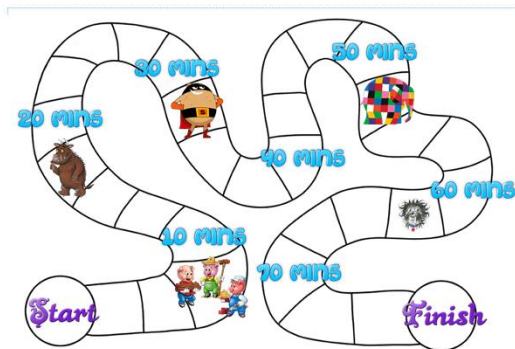

World Book Day is a celebration of reading and an opportunity to encourage children to explore and rediscover the pleasure of books by providing each child throughout the UK and Ireland with a book of their own.

Thanks to the generous sponsorship by National Book Tokens, schools and nurseries across the country receive over 20 million book tokens which are then distributed to children to be exchanged for one of twelve special World Book Day Books. These exclusive books are available from participating bookstores. Watch this video on the different books:

TIME TO READ

Can the children read for a certain amount of time over a week?
Colour in to track your progress.

FS/KS1 and KS2 sheets will be handed out on Monday 27th February

DRESSING UP

Dressing up is a popular way to encourage children to engage with reading. This year can children be a character from their favourite book and bring that book in with them.

Here are 103 great ideas for dressing up:

CHALLENGES

We have a collection of fun reading activities to do in the build up to World Book Day. Take photos, send them to us and we'll create a display in our library.

Full target sheets will be handed out on Monday 27th March
