Primary & Secondary Reading Books:

All books will now either be your primary reading book or your secondary reading book. Primary books will either be classroom library books, Pathways to Read books or fictions books from the library. You should be able to read this book and it counts towards your reading track in your reading diary.

Secondary books link to the different subjects and are usually Non-Fiction. These are in the library and classrooms. You do not need to be able to read this book and it does not count towards the reading track.

Book Requests:

Many of you have requested Horrible Histories and Diary of a Wimpy Kid for Y3/4. The Lexile Levels (difficulty of the text) for these books is for children with a reading age of 9+. Check with your teacher whether you are ready for these books yet. Terry Deary (the author of Horrible Histories) does have Historical Tales (Y3/4 age) which can be found in the Historical Section.

Classroom Library Book Survey

Thank you to those who took part in the end of year classroom library survey. You can see the average score for each book. The lowest ranking book will be replaced and your requests have been taken into consideration so thank you!

Author Profile: Michael Morpurgo

Michael Morpurgo (OBE) is an English children's writer. He has written over 120 books in the last 40 years with some turned into movies. His books have won many awards, including the Whitbread Children's Book Award and the Red House Children's Book Award.

"For me, the greater part of writing is daydreaming, dreaming the dream of my story until it hatches out - the writing down of it I always find hard. But I love finishing it, then holding the book in my hand and sharing my dream with my readers."
